This is an application of Shrimati Bhagirthi Bai, wife of Shri J. S. Birje, for compensation gratuity. His death occurred on 13th June 1950, i.e. after 1st April 1950. According to the new rules, gratuity is admissible to all persons who died after 1-4-50. As in the general case, it has been stated that the fund should be continued for a year more, we may include this case in the April Bulletin and a brief note may be put up for the guidance of the Committee.

Incidentally it may be stated that according to the Comp. Fund Rules, the Descriptive Roll ¹ must be submitted in duplicate and on separate sheets. In this case only one copy of the same has been forwarded. The P.W.D. may therefore be requested to obtain and forward the duplicate copy of the Descriptive

....

NOTE:- Each of the following should be answered carefully, & Any omission or lack of clearness will cause further correspondence and consequent delay in the submission of cases to the Compassionate Fund Committee.

1. Name and designation of the deceased Government servant. Jotiba Siddappa Birje, Chowkidar, Superintending Engineer's Office S.C., Belgaum.
2. Date of death. 1st June 1950.
 - (b) Date of application made by a member of the family of the deceased Government servant. 7th August 1950.
 - (c) In case of the application was submitted to the Department of the Secretariat concerned within one year of the death of the deceased Government servant, what are the reasons for delay ? DOES NOT ARISE.
3. Pay at the time of death. Rs.32/- P.M.
4. Remarks of Superior Officer on deceased Government servant's work. The chowkidar was hard-working honest and sincere to his duties.
5. Circumstances under which death occurred indicating whether it was due to accelerated by special devotion to duty if it was due to plague, cholera, or small-pox whether the deceased Government servant was vaccinated against it by way of preventive treatment and if so, when ? During his long service extending over 30 years as a night chowkidar he had to keep awake all the night to guard the office building and treasure and this devotion shattered his health and he contracted asthma which eventually resulted in his death. He was so devoted to duty that he had only 4 months leave during his 30 years honest service except when he fell ill prior to his death and had to go on leave for 4 months more.
6. Total service, whether pensionable, non-pensionable or work-charged ? 30 years pensionable service.
8. Whether the deceased Government servant was a subscriber to the General Provident Fund? If so, the amount of his deposits in the Fund should be stated. ~~Rs.350/-~~ 350/-
9. Whether the deceased Government servant was insured? If so, the amount for which he was insured should be stated. ~~Rs.350/-~~ No. Small pay and large family did not permit him to go in for insurance.
7. Whether the deceased Government servant was subscriber to the Contributory Provident Fund ? No.

10. Whether the deceased Government servant has left any movable or immovable property ? If so state ~~the~~ its value and the annual income derived from it.

Not left movable property. The only immovable property left by him is a small house valued about Rs.1500/- It does not fetch any income since the members of the deceased are residing therein.

11. The following information regarding the dependants of the deceased Government servants.

No.	Relationship.	Age	Occupation.
1	Shri Ramachandra. Son.	25	Military service. Pay Rs.77/8/-P.M.
2	Shrimati Suman Daughter-in-law	16	House work.
3	Shri ~~Shankar~~ Son.	14	Student.
4	Shri Babu "	12	"
5	Shri Krishna "	8	"
6	Shrimati Gangutai Daughter	7	Twins "
7	" Yamuntai "	7	"
8	" Bhagirathibai Wife	40	House work.
9.	" Ramubai(Widow) Wife's mother	60	"

12. Whether there are any relatives who are in position to give help ?

No.

13. What are the dependent's means of subsistence, apart from the property left by the deceased ?

Nothing except the small pay of the eldest son which is quite inadequate to maintain a family consisting of 9 members not to speak of education, clothing, etc.

14. On what grounds is the case considered to be of an exceptional character ?

On the grounds noted against question Nos.5 & 13, the case is considered to be of an exceptional character requiring immediate financial assistance to redeem the family from the clutches.

15. Amount of gratuity.

Compassionate pension during the life time of the widow or until the second son becomes major and an earning member so as to support the whole family.

16. General.

The case is pitiable and deserves every possible help since the family stands on the verge of ruin.

1 - A. In all cases of applications for assistances from the Compassionate Fund, the Treasury at which payment is desired, in the event of assistance being granted, should be specified and following particulars in respect of the person to whom the gratuity is to be paid should be furnished :-
